SCORPIOS – Eastern Mediterranean

SCORPIOS is a 52 m motor-sailer launched in 2023, redefining luxury charter in the Eastern Mediterranean. Designed by Tramontana, she blends timeless craftsmanship with modern innovation, offering expansive teak decks, a flybridge spa, and panoramic lounges. With six convertible cabins for up to 12 guests and a dedicated crew of 10, SCORPIOS ensures privacy, comfort, and personalized service at sea.

Her interiors feature elegant herringbone flooring, contemporary furnishings, and floor-to-ceiling windows that flood the salon with natural light. Guests enjoy a world-class culinary experience, a fully equipped gym, and an RYA approved water sports centre. From Santorini's cliffs to Kotor's serene bay, SCORPIOS delivers unforgettable journeys of sophistication, indulgence, and Mediterranean charm.

Destination

Croatia, Greece and the Med

The Mediterranean stands as the ultimate sanctuary for the global elite, offering a curated odyssey from Croatia's pristine archipelagos to the mythic allure of the Greek Isles. This region defines the zenith of maritime living, where UNESCO-listed heritage meets the rare luxury of total privacy. In Croatia, guests discover a masterclass in understated elegance amidst crystalline coves, while Greece offers a legacy of culture intertwined with avant-garde gastronomy and the world's most exclusive beach enclaves.

Navigating these storied coastlines ensures seamless access to prestigious marinas and discreet anchorages. From Michelin-starred dining under the stars to private viewings of historical landmarks, every detail is tailored for absolute discretion. This is a lifestyle of effortless luxury designed specifically for the most discerning travelers seeking authenticity and exclusivity.
