TOTEM - Mediterranean Elegance & Greek

TOTEM is a spectacular 50.50-meter Heesen, built in 2010 and completely renovated in 2024, reflecting the excellence of Dutch design. With exterior lines by Omega Architects and a refined interior by Mojo Stumer Architects, she offers an elegant and modern atmosphere. Her full-beam Owner's suite with study, along with five staterooms for ten guests, ensures comfort and privacy on every voyage.

On deck, TOTEM invites guests to enjoy expansive spaces: a sky lounge with alfresco dining, a luminous gym, and a forward-facing jacuzzi. With an outdoor cinema, beach club, and a wide selection of water toys, every moment on board becomes an unforgettable experience. Her crew of eleven professionals, led by a highly renowned captain, guarantees impeccable service in the Eastern Mediterranean

Destination

Croatia, Greece and the Med

The Mediterranean stands as the ultimate sanctuary for the global elite, offering a curated odyssey from Croatia's pristine archipelagos to the mythic allure of the Greek Isles. This region defines the zenith of maritime living, where UNESCO-listed heritage meets the rare luxury of total privacy. In Croatia, guests discover a masterclass in understated elegance amidst crystalline coves, while Greece offers a legacy of culture intertwined with avant-garde gastronomy and the world's most exclusive beach enclaves.

Navigating these storied coastlines ensures seamless access to prestigious marinas and discreet anchorages. From Michelin-starred dining under the stars to private viewings of historical landmarks, every detail is tailored for absolute discretion. This is a lifestyle of effortless luxury designed specifically for the most discerning travelers seeking authenticity and exclusivity.
